MORE REASONS YOU NEED SIMON AT YOUR WEDDING...

“People are still talking to us about the tricks he's performed, we all agree he is the best magician any of us have seen. All of what Simon offers is at fantastic value, and beats out so many other magicians who aren't anywhere near as talented. We chose to book Simon for the day and the night, and would definitely recommend you do the same!” - Jessica Oldfield

THE PERFECT ATMOSPHERE

Close up magic is a very personably form of entertainment, engaging with your guests, making them feel part of the show and creating memories they will not stop talking about. Even during those quiet points like the photo line.

THE PERFECT ICE-BREAKER

No matter how perfect a table plan, there is always some people who don't quite know the others at their table, this is not an issue when you have a table magician to create the perfect talking point, sparking conversation and laughter that sets the mood for the meal. Similarly when people are arriving into the party later on, having an entertainer to smooth out the transition and welcome them in goes a long way.

Simon was our fabulous magician at our Ibiza wedding and we can't thank him enough for entertaining our guests! He is so professional and absolutely amazing!

TURNAROUND TIME COVER

If your venue needs any time to change over a room, rather than guests waiting round they are suddenly provided with top notch entertainment so that rather than the atmosphere lulling, it's actually heightened. Likewise if there happens to be any delays, these become unnoticeable as guests are too busy having their minds blown.

YOUR DAY

You're not getting stock presentations of off the shelf tricks, this is unique to you. You'll be left with unique souvenirs and have the option to take part in personal experiences tailored exclusively to you.

I met Simon at a work function and he was so amazing that I hired him for my wedding day to entertain our guests. Our guests absolutely loved him and he even got a mention in our guest book. He was entertaining for all age ranges and so many people said they couldn't work out how he did his magic. Even the bar staff were trying to work out some tricks! The best thing is, he knew the right times to entertain and when to step back. Absolutely incredible and would definitely recommend him for anyone who is planning a big event! Thank you so much Simon for making our day even more perfect!!

(Sept '17) Simon is amazing! We were looking for a magician for our wedding and Simon was recommended by a friend who'd seen him perform at a previous event. We contacted Simon and arranged to meet him at a local wedding fair where he showed us a few of his tricks. We were so amazed, we booked him there and then! We discussed our wedding via email leading up to the day, which meant he had a good idea of table layouts etc. and could arrange some personalized tricks. Simon asked to meet in person again before the wedding, where he described (vaguely) some of the ideas he had for tricks, and again asked us how we wanted him to perform on the day. When it came to the wedding, Simon blew everyone away, he mingled pre-meal with the guests, entertained tables between courses and stayed into the night to astound the evening guests when they arrived. Simon is so friendly, incredibly professional and really easy to work with. He balances being organised and prepared (necessary for wedding nerves) with surprise and improvisation on the day which only added to the wow factor. People are still talking to us about the tricks he's performed, we all agree he is the best magician any of us have seen. All of what Simon offers is at fantastic value, and beats out so many other magicians who aren't anywhere near as talented. We chose to book Simon for the day and the night, and would definitely recommend you do the same!
